

FLORA
GARDEN
SOCIETY

Dear

As a member of the Flora Garden Society, you join thousands of others across the globe who have a genuine passion for gardening. Flora Garden Society is a place to share, inspire, and connect with both professional and home gardeners.

As a token of our appreciation, we are providing you with our Essential How-To Guide for Flowering Bulbs. Inside these pages, you will learn about different types of flowering bulbs, how to cultivate bulbs, as well as tips and tricks for growing ten popular types of bulbs.

It is our sincere hope that you enjoy reading and learning about this unique and beautiful flower. Thank you for your membership to the Flora Garden Society.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Johnsten

Flora Garden Society Bulb Expert

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Flora Garden Society is to foster a love of gardening through education, communication, and active participation. Members strive to enhance community and surroundings by promoting gardens, plants, and flowers. We pledge to protect and conserve natural resources and encourage civic responsibility.

The Essential How-To Guide for Flowering Bulbs is produced by the Flora Garden Society.

This booklet is free to Flora Garden Society members. To inquire about membership, please contact our membership offices by emailing membership@floragardensociety.com.
