

Palette Manager

Palette Manager allows a user to create color palettes with color names and palette information all in one place. Users can then use the palettes created in conjunction with other tools to use the colors as swatches and present color cards.

Palette Utility

Palette Utility will take all palettes created with Palette Manager and push them into a swatch palette for use as swatches.