Coffee & Tea

Savor hand-selected coffees and teas from Manor & Mason. Our company is committed to bringing customers some of the finest examples of our coffee masters' art. Our Direct Trade policy also guarantees the growers price—far above international fair-trade standards—ensures ever-expanding economic opportunity as well as sustainable, artisan-quality coffee.

Manor & Mason representatives meet tasters, buyers and indigenous farmers in remote tea- and coffee-growing regions to bring only the best to our customers. Through these direct-trade relationships, we are able to pay our growers a premium price for superior coffee and tea. It is this commitment to quality that comes through in every cup.

Because we work with small, family-owned coffee farms and tea estates, our selections vary based on the season and availability. These selections are hand-picked in small batches to ensure our coffee and tea enthusiasts are getting the freshest product.
